No. I created this section to see how I could make money from my mods. I'm not asking for money, just sharing my knowledge for free. Here is the link for the (very) short FAQ that explains how to install them and some possible tips and tricks: Well, the only way that I know how to do this is by making the mod publicly available and then enlisting the help of a third-party modders to make it compatible. This essentially boils down to the process of taking a mod that isn't made for Warband and converting it into one compatible with Warband. I cannot have staff members make new mods unless it is for modding purposes. If there is a particular mod that you would like converted to Warband. Please post it on the Modding forum as a new topic and explain the situation in detail. I will try my best to see what I can do. If the mods are for modding purposes as well, then they will have to be released under a custom license that I will set up. So, then another way that I will be doing this is by figuring out a way to make it all compatible with the regular Warband modding tools (like DMF Modding Factory). That is basically what we are going to be doing on the next few months. Hi, I just got the Mount & Blade: Warband mod installed, but it says that it is incompatible with my version of Warband (2.3). What do you suggest I do? Thanks. If you are using the DMF Modding Factory, then your savegame.WMF file should still work just fine. If you are using the DMF Uninstaller, then it should uninstall all of the DMF tools that it downloaded.
